President & CEO of Clear Picture Leadership, LLC

Provides keynote speeches, presentations and consultation on the topic of leadership. Inspires leaders, aspiring leaders and those seeking personal growth to set and achieve a bold, clear-picture vision for themselves, their team or entire organization. Applies proven leadership principles, which sprang from an impoverished childhood spent in homeless shelters and public housing projects – principles tested in high-power legal positions. Uses own fine-art photography to visually support points.

Chief of the Crime Victims Services Section, Ohio Attorney General's Office

Directed 80 professionals in five departments: Crime Victims Compensation Program, Missing Children Clearinghouse, Identity Theft Verification PASSPORT Program, Crime Victims Assistance Grant Program, and the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Program. Administered a $38 million annual budget. Formed partnerships with companies, non-profit organizations, and government agencies. Interfaced with legislators. Conducted management training. Raised sponsorship funding for special projects. Conducted press interviews.

Assistant Chief of the Charitable Law Section, Ohio Attorney General's Office

Specially assigned to reorganize a team of 35 professionals including managers, attorneys, investigators, and accountants charged with regulating Ohio charities. Interacted with executives of non-profit organizations and other community leaders. Oversaw litigation. Handled personnel matters. Made policy decisions.

Assistant Chief of the Civil Rights Section, Ohio Attorney General's Office

Supervised a staff of 12 attorneys and two secretaries in providing legal representation to the Ohio Civil Rights Commission. Made policy decisions. Litigated cases and oversaw litigation of staff attorneys.
